

PLANNING BUS TRAVEL FOR FAITH-BASED TRAVELLERS

Put Safety First and Make Sure to Look Before You Book!

When planning a group trip, compelling destinations and activities that promote fellowship are important. But safety should always be your top priority: every trip planner, minister, or church activity director should learn about bus safety, and if appropriate, research bus company safety records and driver qualifications before finalizing travel plans.

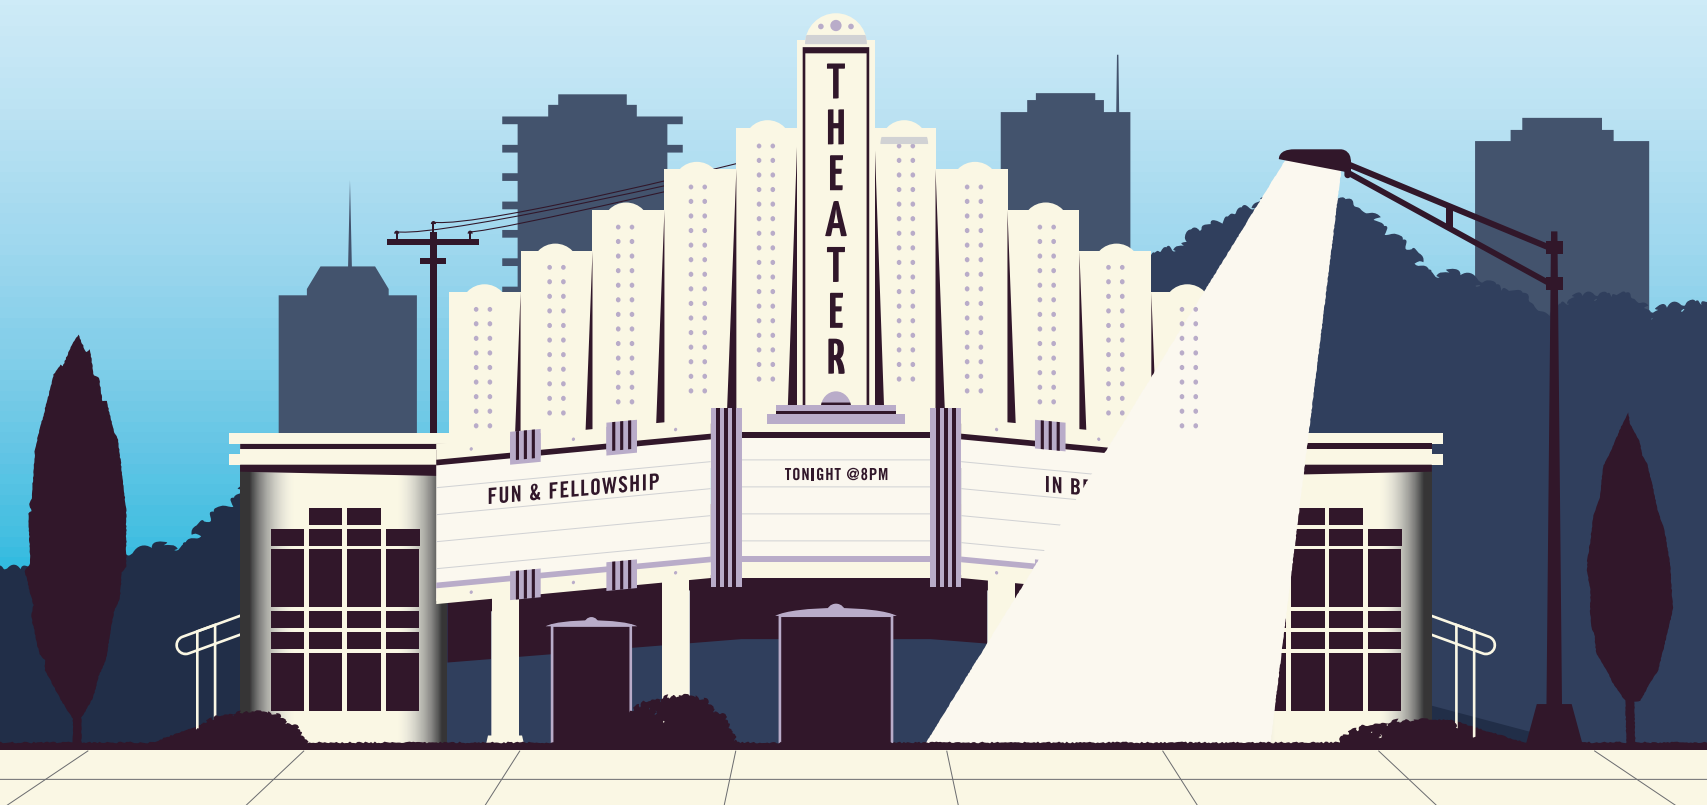

Use Our Free Online Search Tool!

Researching bus safety is easier than ever with our free online search tool. Check out a bus company's safety performance history and take actions like:

- Confirming that the bus company is authorized to operate,
- Checking out their safety rating and actual safety performance,
- Leaving a complaint, and
- Much more!

Visit our website to access other resources to keep your travelers safe. To learn more about bus safety resources available and read more tips to keep your travelers safe, visit www.fmcsa.dot.gov/lookbeforeyoubook.

LOOK BEFORE
YOU BOOK

Brought to you by...

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration